Barbara Chilton

Assistant Professor of Education

B.S., Tennessee State University
M.S., University of Dayton

A native of Springfield, Ohio, Barbara and her husband, Eugene, have three sons: Robert, Kyle, and Aaron. Barbara's church ministries have included the curriculum board, Christian education board, Munnerlyn Circle, and children's sermon. She takes pleasure in golf and traveling.

Vivian (Shelley) Dugle

Assistant Professor of Education

B.A., Cedarville College
M.A., Ball State University

Water skiing, reading fiction, walking, and doing aerobics are a few of the hobbies Shelley enjoys. She and her husband, Rick, and stepson, Christopher, also like to travel, watch football, visit amusement parks, and spend time with relatives.

David Gallagher

Associate Professor of Computer Science

B.S., U.S. Air Force Academy
M.S., Air Force Institute of Technology
Ph.D., University of Illinois

David's military service took him to both Germany and Korea. He and his wife, Kathleen, and children, Jonathan and Daniel, have a special affinity for soccer, camping, and grilling. David's other interests include golf, chess, softball, reading, and gardening.

Stephen Gruber

Assistant Professor of Education

B.A., Cedarville College
M.Ed. & Ed.S., Wright State University
Ed.D., Miami University

Steve has an abundance of international experience, having studied in Russia as a Gerald Reed scholar and taken study tours of Europe and Luxembourg. Skiing and water sports are favorite activities for Steve, his wife, Christa, and children, Erin, Sara, and Scott.

David Hoffeditz

Assistant Professor of Bible

B.A., Cedarville College
Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary
Ph.D., University of Aberdeen (Scotland)

A student of the University of Tübingen in Germany, David has also studied in Israel, done missions work in Romania, and assisted with faculty and curriculum development in German and Greek institutions. A former church pianist and minister of music, his interests include waterskiing, traveling, and coin collecting.

George Huff, Jr.

Assistant Professor of Social Work

B.A., Ashland University
M.S.S.A., Case Western Reserve University

When George is not involved in church committees, music ministry, or Sunday school, he can be found detailing his 1980 Corvette or working around the house. He and his wife, Virginia, and children, Deborah and Linda, enjoy boating, waterskiing, picnics, volleyball, and quality family time.

Frank Jenista

Professor of International Studies

B.A., Cedarville College
M.A., University of Dayton
Ph.D., University of Michigan

Much of Frank's life has been spent outside of the U.S., as he grew up in the Philippines as an MK and spent 25 years as a U.S. diplomat. He admits that he has been known to jump out of perfectly good airplanes, and he revels in tennis, scuba diving, and golf. His wife, Barbara, is a Cedarville grad; son Todd attended Cedarville, and daughter Meg is a senior at the University.

Thomas Mach

Associate Professor of History

B.A., Cedarville College
M.A., Cleveland State University
Ph.D., University of Akron

Tom and his wife, Christine, are the proud parents of Jacob (4) and Kiley (1). Besides enjoying sports and outdoor activities, the Machs are active in Awana, toddler and college age Sunday school, bus ministry, and the community impact committee.

Brenda MacKay

Assistant Professor of Education

B.A., Oglethorpe University
M.Ed., University of Georgia
D.Ed., Bob Jones University

Enthusiastic readers, fans of the Atlanta Braves, and world travelers are all ways to describe Brenda, her husband, Bob, and daughter, Mandy. Brenda is active in mentoring and teacher training, and her missions work has taken her to Russia and Bolivia.

Julie Moore

Assistant Professor of English

B.A., Cedarville College
M.A., University of Dayton

Julie and her husband, John, love weekend getaways at bed and breakfasts as well as rooting for Cleveland sports teams. The proud mother of Ashley and Alex, Julie writes and directs church dramas. Julie taught at Wilberforce University for 10 years prior to returning to Cedarville.

Laila Kteily-O'Sullivan

Associate Professor of Music

B.M., North Texas State University
M.M. & Ph.D., University of North Texas

Laila and her husband, Jim (an adjunct instrumental instructor at the University), enjoy planning home-school curriculum for their children, Emily, Molly, Jamie, Avery, and Chloe. Laila, who is of Palestinian heritage, still maintains a basic command of the Arabic language.

D. Lance Revenaugh

Associate Professor of Management Information Systems

B.B.A. & M.B.A., Baylor University
Ph.D., Arizona State University

Lance and his wife, Heidi, provide homeschooling for their children, Nathan, Rebekah, Grace, Hope, Deborah, and Anna. Lance, who taught at the City University of Hong Kong for three years, enjoys tennis, camping, singing, swimming, travel, and local church ministry.

Anne Rich

Assistant Professor of Accounting

B.A., Cedarville College
M.S., University of Central Florida
Certified Public Accountant

Anne and her husband, David, enjoy bicycling and sailing in the summer, skiing in the winter, and reading all year long. Both Anne and David are heavily involved in their church's ministries.

David Rich

Assistant Professor of Public Administration

B.A., Cedarville College
M.P.A., University of Dayton

In 1997, the Riches and their son, David, traveled to Romania to adopt their son, Daniel. The Riches enjoy missions work: David spent the summer of 1976 in Israel as a short-term missionary, and he and Anne led a group of Cedarville students on a short-term missions trip to China in 1987.

Kevin Roper

Assistant Professor of Mathematics

B.S., Southampton University (England)

M.Ed., University of South Carolina

M.A. & Ph.D, University of Kentucky

A Jamaican citizen, Kevin likes visiting new places, meeting new people, and doing cryptic crosswords. He's a soccer and tennis fan and is involved in Bible studies and college-age ministries.

Alicia (Lisa) Schaffner

Assistant Professor of Biology

B.S., Purdue University

Ph.D., The Ohio State University

Lisa and her husband, David, enjoy hiking, biking, downhill skiing, and getting together with friends. Lisa especially loves horseback riding.

W. Ray Stagle

Assistant Professor of Physical Education and Head Men's Basketball Coach

B.S., Bob Jones University

M.S., Eastern Michigan University

Ray took his Worthington Christian High School (Ohio) basketball team to the Dominican Republic twice for summer ministry/playing opportunities. He and his wife, Matsi, have three children (Jeremy, Jaime, and Jodi), and pursue traveling, tennis, and reading.

Peggy Wilfong

Associate Professor of English

B.A., Tennessee Temple University

M.A., University of Alabama

Ph.D., Indiana University of Pennsylvania

A native of Rosemont, West Virginia, Peggy likes to read, walk, bike, and travel. She ministers in her local church through Awana, children's church, and her work as church secretary.

Susan Winn

Instructor of Library Science and Reference Librarian

B.A., Cedarville College

M.L.S., Kent State University

Susan ministered in the Dominican Republic by helping build an orphanage and giving medical assistance. She loves to learn about other cultures and plans to travel to Europe in the near future. Susan and her husband, David, enjoy biking and camping.

Andrew Wiseman

Assistant Professor of Spanish

B.A., University of Massachusetts at Amherst

M.A., Florida State University

Andrew and his wife, Jessica, recently returned from Spain, where Andrew was a study abroad administrator for Florida State University. While Andrew refers to himself as a "computer/Internet weenie," he and Jessica take pleasure in international travel, camping, dining out, and working at the gym. Andrew serves his church as a video operator/technician, choir member, Spanish teacher, and thespian.

Gary Yates

Assistant Professor of Bible

B.A., Washington Bible College

Th.M. & Ph.D, Dallas Theological Seminary

Gary, a senior pastor from 1994-2000, taught a course in Old Testament Prophets at New Life Bible College in Moscow in 1999. He and his wife, Marilyn, have three children: Erin, Kallie, and Brett. Gary enjoys golf, tennis, basketball, reading, travel, and spending time with family.
